Voter Information Guides and Mail Ballots Delivered to Voters for March 5, 2013 Special Elections

On March 5, 2013, three cities in San Bernardino County are holding special municipal elections. In the City of Rialto, voters will decide on Measure W. In the City of Chino Hills and Town of Yucca Valley, voters will elect candidates to fill vacant council seats.

Voters in the City of Rialto have the option to vote at a polling place or by mail. Voter Information Guides will begin to hit all voters' mailboxes in that city on February 9, 2013. City of Rialto voters who choose to vote in person will find the address of their assigned polling place for this election on the back cover of their Voter Information Guide or they can call the Elections Office at (909) 387-8300. Voters in Rialto on the permanent mail ballot list will begin receiving their mail ballots on February 12, 2013.

The elections in Chino Hills and the Town of Yucca Valley are all-mail ballot elections and voters in those jurisdictions will receive their Voter Information Guides with their ballots. Mail ballot packets will start arriving in voters' mailboxes on February 12, 2013.
